MINDPRO – END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT

Mindpro, who provides the portfolio of cloud apps in the Atlassian Marketplace, is a brand name for the innovation and software development department at e-Core IT Solutions ("Company", "we", "us", or "our"). Mindpro has the "Bonterms Standard Agreement for Marketplace Transactions - Version 1.0" as the primary End-User License Agreement ("EULA") for our apps listed on the Atlassian Marketplace at Mindpro - Marketplace.

This standardized Agreement provides a clear, balanced framework to facilitate efficient licensing for users of Mindpro's applications. Learn more here "Bonterms - Atlassian" and here "Bonterms - FAQ".
